From Father's Desk...

Dear Friends,

Think for a moment of something you really, really wanted to have or achieve, and the sacrifice and hard work that it probably took to get it. That's the "buried treasure" or the "pearl of great price" that the Lord Jesus is speaking of in today's Gospel (Matthew 13 ff). A young man (sometimes not so young) who finds the girl of his dreams will usually travel hours to see her, and work two jobs if necessary to provide for her. That's his pearl of great price. What is yours, and what is mine? Although our answers most probably will be different, the love of Jesus Christ, for all of us, is the ultimate treasure that makes all life meaningful and hopeful too.

Have a wonderful week!
Father Victor Ulto, Pastor

Wider, Wiser Perspectives

My way of identifying someone wiser than myself is that they answer my question—or my complaint—from a perspective wider than that from which I ask it. I think that wide perspective is the gift of wisdom and one we must all seek.

As prayers for patience that seem to be answered by more situations demanding our patience, prayers for wisdom, I believe, are answered by the need for wisdom. I try to look at my life through this lens, particularly when considering my struggles. As I pray, I am always asking for forgiveness for my flaws. But maybe they are my teachers of wisdom. Maybe I should be grateful for them even as I strive to overcome them. Because it is the very overcoming—the falling and getting up, falling and getting up—that expands our perspective and allows a bit of wisdom to slip in while we're busy doing something else.

Stewardship....Live It!

*Stewardship: a way of life for our
St. Bernadette Parish Family...*

“The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field.”

Matthew 13: 44

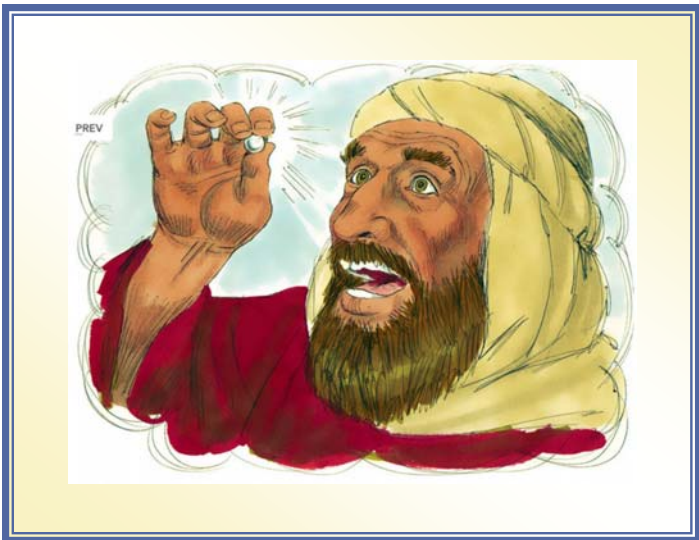

STEWARDSHIP & THE JEWEL...

Jesus presents us with more parables in today’s Gospel from Saint Matthew. He opens the first one with Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and hid; and for joy over it he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.

According to most biblical scholars and theologians who study and dissect and draw conclusions on Jesus’ teachings, in this particular parable, and those which follow, the field is the world. The man who values the treasure is not any of us because we do not have anything with which to purchase this treasure. The Man Who gave all to buy this field was Jesus Himself.

And it is with joy that He gives all to buy the field, to save the world and each of us. What makes the treasure so wonderful that the Lord would give all, His very life to each of us? In other words, each of you! Jesus gave everything to redeem the whole world to preserve a treasure it contains. He gave all because we His people are the treasure.

Do we understand that? Do we consider that every time we approach the gift of the Eucharist? We should. Saint Paul may have put it best in his letter to the Romans: You are loved more than you will ever know, by someone who died to know you. (Romans 5:8) Ω

STEWARDSHIP & OUR PRIESTS...

Rev. Victor Ulto, Pastor

Rev. Antony Lopez OCD

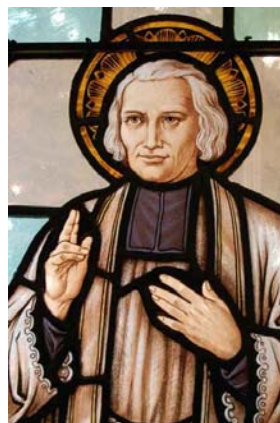

AUGUST 4: St. John Maria Vianney, Patron Saint of Parish Priests.

The Glorious Duty of Man: TO PRAY AND TO LOVE

Next Friday we declare Happy Feast Day of St. John Maria Vianney to all of you and to all the priests in the world! It is a special day to ask Our Lord for holy and faithful priests and for more priestly vocations all over the world.

We are blessed here at St. Bernadette with Fathers Victor Ulto and Antony Lopez OCD. It is a good day to thank them and to thank God for providing us with them.

On Friday, the 2nd reading in the Divine Office speaks about the glorious duty of man, according to the words of the holy Curé d’Ars St. John Maria Vianney. We pray...

St. John Maria Vianney,
pray for us and for all the priests in the world, especially those who are in most need!

Mary, our Mother, and Mother of all priests of your Son, guide and protect your Son’s ministers that we may do God’s will with the same love, devotion, generosity, sacrifice and dedication shown by you and our priests. Amen.

Financial stewardship for the month of July will be reported in the bulletin of Sunday, August 6, 2017.

Prayer for the Protection of Storms

God our Father, Creator of the universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly come before You as Your children, mindful of Your hearing our prayers in the past, and confident of Your hearing these as well. We ask that You keep us safe from all hurricanes that may threaten us in the coming season.
Protect us from all fear and anxiety of storms and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy. You alone have the power to command the sea, the wind, and the rain. You alone bring peace, calm and safety. Father, we thank You in advance for You are our only refuge. We ask this through Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

Amen.

Father Lopez, with his keen photographic eye, wanted to share with you the many different features of our beautiful church you may not have noticed! Each week he will include a different close-up picture of a detail in our church architecture, statues, or art for you to discover. In the following week's bulletin, Father will post the answer of where it is located in the church.

Can you discover where this close-up is located this week?

Answer to last week's mystery picture :
The Lamb pictured in the Easter Candle (Pascal Candle)

Thank You...

To all the good members in Knights of Columbus Council #13042 for sharing a portion of the gifts of treasure from your resources with the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. Back to school blessing

Dear Heavenly Father,

For all the children returning to school, send your Holy Spirit as their guide and protector.

Keep them free from danger and unnecessary harm. Put our sons and daughters in the right place, at the right time, to receive your grace. Let them learn and grow strong. May the presence of your Spirit fill their hearts. Help us to mature as parents and caregivers.

Bless every family, oh Lord.

We entrust our children to you, dear God. Since from the beginning, they are yours to keep.

In the name of the greatest Son of all, Jesus Christ.

Amen.
