From Father's Desk...

Dear Friends,

There exists in Israel, in Caesarea Philippi, a place, part of a rough mountainside, where in a huge cave, human sacrifices were offered to pagan gods. This place came to be known to the Jewish people as "the gates of hell," because of the horrible events which occurred there. Knowing this, Jesus' words to Peter in today's Gospel carry even more impact. You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build My church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. (Matthew 16: 18ff). Chances are, Jesus might have pointed to the ominous cave as He said those words.

What an impact Jesus' Words must have had on Peter and the other Apostles and what an impact on us too! Our Church, over two thousand years old, has survived persecutions, heresies, scandals, sin. What a powerful indication that this is God's Church, a family of believers, sinful though we are, that holds out the hand of welcome to all people, to the ends of the earth!

May God continue to purify us and use us to His honor and glory!

Have a wonderful week!

Practicing Gratitude

The most profound changes in my faith life began several years ago when I started a gratitude practice. Every morning I write in my gratitude journal—ten things I am thankful for and why. My list includes the biggest blessings and the simplest things. I am grateful for a hot bath because it reminds me of God's warmth and love. When I first started this practice, I began to deeply realize all the good gifts God puts in my life on a regular basis. The little irritations had less impact on me. I began to thank God in advance rather than make petitions. Sometimes I can even muster the mustard seed to thank God for the things I don't like and don't want. This is the biggest change of all! I am thankful for setbacks or disappointments because I trust that God has something so much better on the way. I am thankful for the practice of gratitude because it changes my life!

Stewardship....Live It!

*Stewardship: a way of life for our
St. Bernadette Parish Family...*

“Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God!”

Romans 11: 33

STEWARDSHIP & THE KEYS TO THE KINGDOM...

In last week’s Gospel we heard the story of the Canaanite woman (a Gentile) who appealed to Jesus for help, and her prayer and plea were answered. Part of the message of that is that the Kingdom of God is open and offered to all peoples.

This week we hear Jesus say to Saint Peter in the Gospel from Matthew, I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven. An important part of the Vatican flag is two keys. Those keys, of course, represent the keys to the kingdom to which Jesus makes reference. Were you aware that one key is gold and the other silver? Interpretation is that the gold key represents spiritual power and the silver key represents worldly power.

We are also fond of images showing Saint Peter at the gates of Heaven deciding who is admitted and who is not. Nevertheless, the keys are reinforced in the Acts of the Apostles, and it is perhaps not that Peter opens the gates of Heaven, but Peter (and Paul, as well) through his ministry and explanations make it clear that heaven (the kingdom) is available to all, Jews and Gentiles.

Our Catholic Catechism (#1023) states, “Those who die in God’s grace and friendship and are perfectly purified live forever with Christ. They are like God forever, for they ‘see him as he is,’ face to face.” Pope Francis has spoken on this more than once. Recently, he stated, The Lord has redeemed all of us, all of us with the Blood of Christ. However, we must meet one another doing good. Our call is clear. Ω

STEWARDSHIP & LABOR DAY...

LABOR DAY

SEPTEMBER 4, 2017

In the United States we celebrate the first Monday of September as Labor Day. It is a day to reflect and relax. The Catholic Church proclaims the dignity, meaning, and redemptive value of all human work.

During the last years of his service to the Church and the world, the late, beloved Servant of God, Pope Saint John Paul II addressed an assembly of the leaders of the Catholic Action movement in Italy on the Feast of St. Joseph the Worker. He used an extraordinary term, referring to what he called the “gospel of work.” Many people misunderstood his intent though, concluding that he meant to say “works.”

Nothing could be more inaccurate. Rather, he was proclaiming a deeper meaning of the effects of grace on the entirety of our human experience; that in and through Jesus Christ, all human work has been transformed. This “gospel of work” needs to be proclaimed anew this Labor Day. Our Catholic Catechism helps us with these insights: Human work proceeds directly from persons created in the image of God and called to prolong the work of creation by subduing the earth, both with and for one another. Hence work is a duty: If any one will not work, let him not eat. Work honors the Creator’s gifts and the talents received from Him.

Work can also be redemptive. By enduring the hardship of work in union with Jesus, we collaborate in a certain fashion with the Son of God in His redemptive work. We show ourselves to be disciples of Christ by carrying the cross daily, in the work we are called to accomplish. Ω

Financial stewardship for the month of August will be reported in the bulletin of Sunday, September 3, 2017.

SPY IN THE CHURCH!

Father Lopez, with his keen photographic eye, wanted to share with you the many different features of our beautiful church you may not have noticed! This last week, he includes a different close-up picture of a detail in our church architecture, statues, or art for you to discover. In the following week's bulletin, Father will post the answer of where it is located in the church.

Can you discover where this close-up is located this week?

Answer to last week's mystery picture:
