From Father's Desk...

Dear Friends,

On this Solemnity of Christ the King, we need to devour today's Gospel (John 18: 33b-37), to learn the kind of king we hail as our God and Lord.

My kingdom is not of this world, Jesus says... I have come to testify to the truth... everyone who hears My voice testifies to the truth.

In our world of often spoken half-truths and deceit, how blessed are we to know that Jesus, our King, speaks only the truth, and the truth will set us free. As we end one Church Year, and as we begin a new one next week, may the knowledge of Christ our King lead us to a deeper appreciation of the truth, while at the same time, preparing us to accept Him and His truth always!

Have a wonderful week!
Father Victor Ulto, Pastor

Christ the King

Ancient One, this designation of your ancient presence was born in the heart of the prophet Daniel and placed upon his lips. He realized that your essence existed before the universe took shape, before your word gathered matter and gave it form. Ancient One, as our strongest ally and surest guide, we need your graced wisdom as much as Daniel did in his era of violence and injustice. Remind us often of how your expansive love found a welcoming home in the humanity of Jesus.

On this feast, when we recognize His reign over our hearts, stir within us, the love you have seeded at the core of who we are and what we do. May our allegiance to Christ the King enlarge and deepen our faithful commitment to activate his teachings.

Sister Joyce Rupp, O.S.M.

Stewardship... Live It!

Stewardship: a way of life for our almighty.”

Revelations 1:8

STEWARDSHIP & CHRIST THE KING...

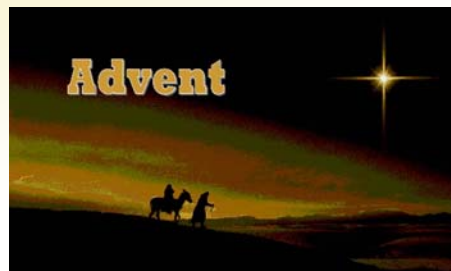

Today, our last Sunday of Ordinary Time for this liturgical year, we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King. This feast was instituted by Pope Pius XI in 1925, at a time when the world was experiencing a rise of secularism, materialism and individualism and an increasing denial of Christ’s existence and authority. The hope was that the establishment of this feast would accomplish three goals: that nations would see that the Church has the right to freedom, that leaders and nations would see that they are required to give respect to Christ, the King of kings, and that the faithful would be strengthened and encouraged by the reminder that Christ must reign in our hearts, minds, wills and bodies.

This feast is needed more than ever for all people and for us especially, as Christian stewards. It reminds us of three vital truths. First, even when it seems the world is spinning out of control, we need not fear because we have a King of kings who is very much in charge and who is loving, merciful and just. Second, if Christ is king of all, then He is also king of me, personally. I am not “lord” of my time, talents, and treasure. He is. I am a servant of the King and a steward of His gifts to me. Third, as His disciple, I am called to imitate my King. Christ’s kingship is characterized by humble service, by emptying Himself for the good of others. The Scriptures tell us He went about doing good and He says of Himself, I came not to be served but to serve. How can we live in any other way than as a humble servant like our King?

STEWARDSHIP & ADVENT...

Does it seem to you that each year the holiday season gets busier and busier, and we get further and further away from the true meaning of Advent and Christmas? The best way to combat this tendency is to adopt or renew Advent traditions in the home. Whether you are single, a busy parent with kids, or empty-nesters, you can celebrate Advent like you are actually anticipating the coming of Christ—which is the whole point. It’s a spiritual journey!

Advent derives from the Latin adventus meaning “arrival” or “approach”. For thousands of years the world waited for the coming of the Messiah to redeem and to save the human race, restoring mankind’s relationship to God. We, too, experience this same longing for the coming of Christ. Spiritually, we long for the coming of Christ into our hearts as the Holy Spirit draws us into ever deepening relationship with Him; we also long for Christ in his Second Coming, when He will return physically to earth—as He promised—to restore all things to Himself.

Therefore the Advent season has these characteristics: 1) Hopeful longing; 2) Joyful expectation; 3) Prayerful penance; 4) Spiritual preparation. Advent is the liturgical season we celebrate as the precursor to the Christmas season. Don’t skip it! It’s there for a reason. Advent begins on the Sunday nearest the feast of St. Andrew the Apostle (November 30th) and ends on December 24th. Christmas begins December 25th at midnight and continues until the Feast of the Baptism of Jesus. Advent is our liturgically built-in time of spiritual preparation for Christmas. If you want to get the most out of the Christmas season and fill up your soul with love for Christ, the best way to do that is to “let every heart prepare Him room” —and celebrating Advent is the Church’s way to do it!

Financial stewardship for the month of November will be reported in the bulletin of Sunday, December 2, 2018.

Lives in Glass Jars

The year... 1942... a young woman who is a nurse, is following the footsteps of her parents. Her Dad is a medical doctor and her mother, a nurse for 31 years.

Into her second year of nursing school, this young woman disappointed her parents by explaining to them that nursing was not for her. She wanted to be a plumber! She purchased an old truck; graduated with a Plumber's license and acquired two German Shepherd dogs. She was excited about her mission, which no one could understand at the time.

Come to the lecture! You will learn what her mission was and what her accomplishments were and... her Glass Jars!

PLEASE TAKE NOTE....

We have received information from our Port St. Lucie Police Department that there have been a series of car burglaries in our area, most recently at Watercrest Assisted Living. Evidently noticing valuables in the cars, the burglars have been smashing the car windows and stealing the purse, or pocketbook, etc. We ask you to take this seriously, always removing valuables from your car when parked, always locking your car and NEVER give money to those asking for it in the parking lot or even in the Church or Chapel. Please inform Father Ulto if someone does ask for money, taking special note of appearance and car description and license plate number if possible.

Our St. Bernadette Giving Christmas Tree is returning!

Good Stewards of St. Bernadette Look for Giving Tree Stars beginning Wednesday, November 28, 2018.

Please select a star or two making someone's Christmas wish come true.

If you choose to grant someone's wish by taking a star(s), kindly remember:

*to attach the star to the wrapped gift/bag.

*If you have purchased more than one gift for the person, please put all of them together in one box/gift bag with the stars attached securely to the outside of the box/gift bag. This year, some of the ornaments will be for school supplies for the children at Parkway Elementary School. If you take those ornaments, please follow their special instructions.

Also, this year we ask that you place your gift(s) in the box with the same color star on the front. The boxes for the gifts will be found along the corridor leading to the parish office. Return gift(s) no later than Sunday, December 16, 2018.

Thank you for your generosity and your sense of stewardship in serving others in need. God bless all of you!
