From Father's Desk...

Dear Friends,

Jesus is Risen! Alleluia!

On this Second Sunday of Easter (Easter continues for six weeks more), Jesus draws forth from Thomas his wonderful confession of faith: My Lord and my God! Thomas, perhaps incorrectly known as the "doubter," would not believe in Jesus' Resurrection unless he examined the Lord's marks of His Passion: the holes in His hands, feet and side. Most likely, grieving rather than doubting, Thomas was undoubtedly leary to put his hopes and trust in Jesus again, unless he could be reassured that he would not be disappointed again.

How human the apostle Thomas is, how like us!

May the Risen Lord, full of mercy and love, understand our shortcomings as He did Thomas.

St. Thomas, my twin, pray for us!

Have a wonderful week!
Father Victor Ulto, Pastor

The Story of Us

We all know the story of Thomas: he wasn't with the others when Jesus appeared post-resurrection, and he promptly declared his disbelief. It surprises us that Thomas was not willing to take the word of the other disciples. After all, why would they lie? Thomas was appropriately overwhelmed a week later when Jesus returned and invited him to touch His wounds. Thomas' story is also the story of us. We can feel isolated and abandoned when we face struggle after struggle while the blessings bestowed on others seem so obvious. But the Lord's ways, and His love, don't always come in visual forms. If we summon up the faith, courage and patience to accept the Lord's timing and plans, even when we find them difficult to accept, the happy ending He is writing for us becomes more apparent—and believable!

Lord, help me to see you—and to believe and trust when I can't.

M. Rigney

Stewardship....Live It!

*Stewardship: a way of life for our
St. Bernadette Parish Family...*

Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you."

John 20: 20

STEWARDSHIP & DISCIPLESHIP...

Today, the Second Sunday of Easter, is Divine Mercy Sunday. Our Gospel reading from St. John is often called the story of Doubting Thomas, but the passage involves so much more than the encounter with the skeptical apostle. It is rich with lessons of Christ's mercy to all, including an encouraging word from our Lord especially for us, His modern-day disciples. While Thomas traditionally takes all the bad rap for his doubts, we see that none of the Apostles were at their best when Christ first appeared to them after His resurrection. They were actually in hiding, cowering behind a locked door, paralyzed by fear and doubt.

But Jesus appeared right in their midst in spite of the lock on the door. Was it to rebuke them for their lack of faith? Quite the contrary, He comes on a mission of mercy. He comes to offer them peace and the restoration of their relationship with Him. And even more, He commissions them to become ministers of His mercy, by giving them authority to forgive sins. At that moment Christ gives to all of us the supreme gift of mercy — the sacrament of Reconciliation. What a precious and powerful gift!

This Sunday is a perfect time to reflect on how well we make use of this gift. Do we really appreciate its healing power? Could we become better stewards of this gift by going to Confession more often? We must also reflect on how well we extend mercy to others as Jesus did to Thomas that day.

Let's commit ourselves to becoming faithful disciples and stewards of Christ's mercy. We will be those very ones to whom Jesus gave a "shout out" during His encounter with Thomas: Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed — in His merciful love Ω

Blessed are they who have not seen and yet have believed

John 20:29

STEWARDSHIP & DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY...

Jesus, I trust in You!
O Jesus, have mercy! Embrace the whole world and press me to Your Heart.....O Lord, let my soul repose in the sea of Your unfathomable mercy.

(DIARY, 869)

Divine Mercy Sunday is a Catholic solemnity celebrated on the Sunday after Easter. It is originally based on the Catholic devotion to the Divine Mercy that Saint Faustina Kowalska reported as part of her encounter with Jesus, and is associated with special promises from Jesus and indulgences issued by the Church.

On the Second Sunday of Easter of the Jubilee Year 2000, at the Mass for the canonization of St. Faustina Kowalska, Pope Saint John Paul II proclaimed to the world that "from now on throughout the Church this Sunday will be called Divine Mercy Sunday."

The devotion to Divine Mercy Sunday grew rapidly after its designation by Pope Saint John Paul II and is now widely celebrated by Catholics.

The Divine Mercy image is often carried in processions on Divine Mercy Sunday, and is placed in a location in the church so that it can be venerated by those who attend Mass.

We are privileged to have a registered Cenacle of the Divine Mercy movement here at St. Bernadette. The Chaplet is recited weekly on Friday afternoon in our Msgr. Cosmo Saporito Chapel. For more information on Divine Mercy, contact the ministry coordinator:
